Matsuda Shutdown,

Matsuda will be officially shutting down on 21/08/21

This is the longer message that I wouldn’t have space to fit in the announcement in the discord server. This is a fate that no group can escape and we are not different.

I’ve been stalling announcing and writing this as I said because I genuinely don’t know how to put into words the great time we’ve had. Sure it’s only a game but we’ve still had so much fun (that's what games are for lol) and made great friends/memories on the way. I’d love to make long lists of everything we’ve done, everyone I’d like to thank, etc, but it would be impossible to do so as there’s simply so much. I will include some highlights but do not mistake it for me underselling anything in the clan if I forgot to mention it. Every moment here has been a joy and I’m happy to leave both the genre and the clan on such a high note.

You probably want some more detail as to why we’re shutting down:

1. Loss of interest from me and the HRs. Not in you guys, but in the genre and running an FJ clan in general. To put it simply we got too good for our own good if that makes sense. I’m so so so proud of the strength we reached but ultimately it removed the element of challenge for us. Many of us, including me and the HRs, are not quitting roblox but just moving onto other stuff because we lost interest in FJ.
2. Further building onto the previous point, there’s not much to do in FJ anymore. We tried to compensate for this through our Mura, courts and families but it wasn’t enough to make up for the lack of activity in the core elements of FJ.
3. Moving on, many of us have been in this genre for a while and are naturally getting a bit tired of it.

I am satisfied with this reason and happy to say we’re not leaving on a sour note with the genre like many others have and just that we slowly lost interest.

SPECIAL THANKS TO THE HRs!

Although I can’t fit everyone I want to thank as I said, I think it’s mandatory that I state how important the HRs were in this experience. We would be nowhere without them. Even if you did not see them all always working, they were. Every single HR helped run the clan both behind the scenes and in the scene.

MATSUDA HIGHLIGHTS!!

apologies because I couldn't include nearly as much as I'd like because we've been around so long I've lost pictures and can't find any so there's not too much from our older times on here.... Sorry <3

@Matsuda Enlisted

Honor added, well done everyone.

8 days ago, we beat So Clan at Valley for Kyoto. This week, Matsuda have beaten the So Clan at their own castle. Designed to be targeting our weak points, we still beat them. Nice job, 75 - 0, that's almost a flawless 100 - 0. They outrallied us by a few, and all the odds were just against us. However, you guys, the brilliancy of the clan that represents who we are pulled though and won the fight. In words of the great, @[BRT] Edgar_TM, Matsuda Clan has sent the So Clan to Brazil (Sorry for the long wait, and we will update you guys with the outcome of the battle)

@everyone

DECISIVE VICTORY!

On 04/30/2021 (30th April, yesterday), Oda Clan + Allies officially surrendered to the Matsuda clan after our forces engaged them in the 3rd battle.

Although there was only 2 official battles to this war, each one was a crushing victory which led to the swift surrender of our enemies. Our allies also fought valiantly in theirs which contributed to this. It is with great pleasure that I announce this victory.

VICTORIOUS:

DEFEATED:

@everyone Dear Lords and Ladies of Feudal Japan,

It has come to my attention that Lord Matsuda, and his domain have met all the requirements for obtaining Shogunate status, and so by are customs we will be holding a Inauguration/Ceremony this Wednesday at 8pm EST at Kyoto and as so I the Kampaku (Imperial Regent) also recognize Lord Matsuda's family as have obtained Kuge status. All are invited to attend and we ask that everyone remains respectful during this event.
